

RUGBY VALUES

Level 1-4

Rugby is a team sport that involves more than just physical skills. You are often confronted with team values, boundaries for behaviour and an environment for producing positive relationships.

As a result, you are encouraged to reach your full potential in the team environment.

Love For The Game

- ◆ We are passionate about rugby.
- ◆ We work hard for the game, but also have fun.

Sportsmanship

- ◆ We treat people fairly.
- ◆ We strive to act in the best interests of rugby by:
 - Being open
 - Being accountable
 - Adhering to our principles

Excellence

- ◆ We strive to be experts at what we do.
- ◆ We aim to exceed expectations.
- ◆ We set high goals.

Selflessness

- ◆ We accept responsibility for our actions.
- ◆ We operate as a team.

Guardianship

- ◆ We treasure the history and heritage of rugby in New Zealand and strive to add to it.

Community

- ◆ We treat other people with courtesy and respect.
- ◆ We value each others' opinions.

Mateship

- ◆ We value our colleagues and the friendships within rugby.
- ◆ We celebrate success.

Above are the values of New Zealand Rugby – pick a value and make into a poster to display in your class; using words or sentences to explain