

1. The same number of seats has been placed in each row at the rugby grounds. Rugger's chair is in the third row from the front, and the 18th row from the back. Webb's seat has eight chairs to the left of it and 11 chairs to the right. How many chairs are there at the rugby grounds?

2. William bought some chips and a fizzy drink for $2.85. The chips cost twice as much as the fizzy drink. What was the cost of each item?

3. In a rugby game, Rugger, William and Alice scored 20 tries between them. Rugger scored the lowest, and Alice scored the highest. Rugger's score doubled was between William's and Alice's. How many tries did Rugger score?

4. Rugger, William, Webb and Alice are lined up to go on the rugby field. How many different ways can they line up?

