

Friendship

What are some things you could be doing that will help you to develop more positive relationships with friends, teammates or in class?

A worksheet for brainstorming ideas. It features a central illustration of two cartoon characters shaking hands. The character on the left has long brown dreadlocks, wears a black t-shirt and shorts, and holds a white bag. The character on the right has curly brown hair, wears a red t-shirt and white shorts, and has a red collar. Surrounding this central image are ten empty circles arranged in two rows of five, intended for students to write their ideas.
